- 1.3 The principal objective of THFC is to lend money to housing associations in the UK funded through the issue of bonds and raising bank loans. It has established a number of wholly owned subsidiaries to cater for the varying interests of stockholders and bank lenders in different forms of financial instrument. - 1.4 The majority of THFC's supply chain comprises UK or EU based banks, professional firms or blue-chip companies. In the last year we have continued with our organisational-wide risk assessment to assess the nature and extent of our exposure to Modern Slavery. We have concluded that our risk is low; however, we undertake due diligence proportionate to this risk. We ask all our suppliers to provide us with their published Modern Slavery Statements as evidence of their commitment to eradicate this violation of human rights. Smaller suppliers, who are not required to maintain a statement by law, are asked to demonstrate their commitment to our own policy. Training on modern slavery forms part of the induction process for all individuals who work for us.
- 1.5 We have intrinsic core values around equality, diversity and inclusion and corporate responsibility. In addition to our Modern Slavery Policy, we have a Whistleblowing Policy which employees can utilise if they have concerns about any wrongdoing or breaches of the law or regulations.
- 1.6 Over the next 12 months we will be: monitoring and updating our risk assessment and associated reporting where appropriate, continuing to require all new suppliers and those whose contracts have come up for renewal to enter into a commitment to ensure compliance with the relevant rules and regulations, continuing with and reviewing the training programme for all new joiners and policy review programme, and continuing to take action to embed a zero tolerance policy towards modern slavery.
